Translation.

To

His Excellency Lord Ampthill

Governor of Madras Presidency.

Your Excellency,

I have the honour to confirm my telegram of yesterday 's date requesting Your Excellency the kindness of issuing orders for the arrest of one Dada Bassapa, who is 31 years old, son of Hencopa and of Kadiapa, bachelor, native of Bellary, merchant.

This man having been accused of the offence of dacoity and of murder of one Massiappa, was tried by the Magistrate's Court of Quefiem and, having the proceedings been submitted to the High Court of the district, he was finally sentenced by the decree of the 29th March 1901 to 28 years' transportation in East Africa with 8 years' imprisonment at the same place, and was embarked to Mozambique on the 8th July 1901 on board the S.S."Sultan" of the German East Africa line with transhipment at Zanzibar to the S.S.Bundesrath of the same Company.

During the voyage he succeeded somehow to escape and since then nothing further was heard about him up to this date.

Now one Shanmookapa, brother of the victim Massiappa residing in the town of Bellary informs this Government that the said convict Dada Bassapa has made his appearance in the village of Assoonda of the Bellary District.

In result of the correspondence exchanged between the Government of Bombay and this Government(Letters Nos.2101 of the 1st April 1898 and 32 of the same month respectively) in the interest of public order, criminals who from one territory abscond into the other, are at present mutually surrendered although there is no treaty or convention of extradition for either Protuguese or British possessions in India.

It is under these terms that I beg to request Your Excellency to order the arrest of the convict in question. The documents regarding his condemnation shall be forwarded to Your Excellency as soon as the man is arrested in order that he may be surrendered in such a way as Your Excellency may deem convenient.

God preserve Your Excellency. New Goa.13th January 1903.

In the name of His Excellency the Governor-General absent (Sd) Francisco M.Peixato Veira.

Jamedar Lutcharam Singh of the Chitaldroog Taluk has been specially deputed to apprehend the convict and that the search hitherto made by him to trace the convict in the Chellakere and Molkalmuru Taluks, has been of no avail. The Jamedar also proceeded to Bellary where he obtained the descriptive roll of the convict from the convicts' castemen and relatives and it has been circulated to all the Taluks in the District as the convict and his aged father are reported to be both travelling in villages eking out their livelihood by cooly. It is also reported that the convict and his father were last seen at Meerasabi-Halli village, Chellakere Taluk, about the latter part of March 1903 further endeavours are being made to trace out the Convict.
